

A Smattering of the Provocative, Poetic, and Curious Titles to be found in The Legacy Letters

---

The Everything and Nothing of Money

To Make a Marriage Live or Die

“I spy a mermaid green I have never seen before—“

Toast Your Old Man and Remember the Seasons

Rain’s Great

The Church of Earth and Sky

The Art of Work and Working

Birthing and Raising Kids

“How do you, my Little One, laugh in your sleep?”

The Losing of Love

“Your Old Man’s Declaration of What’s Important in Life”

My Two Bits on Growing Old

Dream Like Your Old Man

“I love you . . . Standing at the edge of this forever . .

A Most Important Letter

Time—The First and Last Gift

Your Pappy’s Love of Books and All Appearances of the Mother Tongue

When You’re Eighteen, Do Not Read This

Please Say Thank You and Please

“To remember you so vividly . . . sweet champagne pulsing through your veins . . .”

There are Hard Days to Live

Listen to Your Pappy’s Music

“I found this poem . . . Riding under blue-burnt rain . . .”

On My Boy Becoming a Man

Travel the World

“I am with you now. On this last and beautiful Christmas.”

When You’re Twelve Years Old, Then Read This

“Take off my clothes and there becomes a man.”

“Who will you be, my Little Ones?”

“I give to you our vows . . . Our wedding vows.”

Contact Info

Carew Papritz

carew@kingnorthern.com

TheLegacyLetters.com